

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Lymphedema-cerebral arteriovenous anomaly syndrome

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Lymphedema-cerebral arteriovenous anomaly syndrome. ORPHA:86914

Lymphedema-cerebral arteriovenous anomaly syndrome is characterised by the variable association of a cerebrovascular malformation, foot lymphoedema and primary pulmonary hypertension. It has been described in a woman and four of her children.