

Review of: "Medical students' disease status of COVID-19: A multicenter study"

Nitin John

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. The study design and method of survey has been well executed.
2. Discussion can be further elaborated with more references if any to support the findings
3. Strength and limitation can be further explained with suggestions for future scope of work