

Open Peer Review on Qeios

High-Resolution Microendoscopy

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. High-Resolution Microendoscopy. NCI Thesaurus. Code C116480.

A low-cost, high-resolution imaging tool consisting of a 1-mm diameter fiber-optic bundle that produces subcellular imaging at 1,000x magnification and 4 micrometer resolution, allowing for minimally invasive bioimaging.