

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Dominant-Negative Mutation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Dominant-Negative Mutation. NCI Thesaurus. Code C18756.

Any mutation that encodes an altered gene product that acts to antagonize the wild-type allele. Dominant negative mutations are characterized by a dominant or semi-dominant phenotype, and usually result in loss of function.

Qeios ID: 9ZN416 · https://doi.org/10.32388/9ZN416