

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cocaine- and Amphetamine-Regulated Transcript Protein

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Cocaine- and Amphetamine-Regulated Transcript Protein. NCI Thesaurus. Code C147930.

Cocaine- and amphetamine-regulated transcript protein (116 aa, ~13 kDa) is encoded by the human CARTPT gene. This protein plays a role in the inhibition of appetite.