

Review of: "Law Indigenous Peoples Confronting International Fraud and Mafia Cases on the Large Displacement of Rohingya Refugees to Indonesia Aberrant Behavior Violation of Indonesian Law by Rohingya Refugees Causing Societal Harm and Economic Loss"

Abdullah Omar Yassen

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This research paper is timely and relevant. It discusses important issues. However, it requires improvement in order to be published. It must be proofread and reviewed by an English language teacher to improve the language. The language is more relevant to journalists rather than academics; for example, the author uses words such as 'illegal', 'very angry'. The sentence 'the local community also needs to be educated on how to deal with refugees who arrive at the border area' is derogatory and must be qualified. Some of the points mentioned in the introduction should be in the recommendation section. The conclusion section is too short. The section heading for section 9 is way too long and should be shortened,