

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Pleural Solitary Fibrous Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Pleural Solitary Fibrous Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C4457.

A localized neoplasm of probable fibroblastic derivation, that arises from the pleura. It is characterized by the presence of round to spindle-shaped cells, hyalinized stroma formation, thin-walled branching blood vessels, and thin bands of collagen.