

Review of: "Reef Fish in the Vitória-Trindade Seamount Chain of the Southwestern Atlantic: Biogeographical Corridors and Impact of Fishing"

Rafael Chávez-L¹

¹ Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The work presents interesting information but has the disadvantage of being recorded more than 20 years ago.

In this context, the processing of the data is appropriate; some species names are misspelled. I wish the authors could update the information because in this period of time important changes could occur, including fishery data.

In my opinion, there is a need to update information on fisheries and on the impacts on fish stocks.