

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Postcapillary Venule

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Postcapillary Venule. NCI Thesaurus. Code C33345.

The first portion of the venous component of the microcirculation composed of endothelial cells, pericytes, and a basement membrane, which is one of the main sites for the interchange of gas and metabolite molecules between the tissues and the blood.