Thank you for your efforts. Here are some remarks:

The whole manuscript lacks academic writing skills.

The abstract needs to be organized; it should include the aim of the paper, its novelty, the methodology, main findings, implications, and limitations, if any.

The organization of the paper should be mentioned in the introduction section.

All sections should be numbered.

The literature review section lacks organization and should be categorized into clear themes/arguments for clear understanding.

The employed method is appropriate.

Conclusion, implications, and suggested future research must be included in the manuscript.

The references list is missed.
