Review on Weathering changes – livelihood adaptation to weather shocks in rural India by disadvantaged social groups

Comments on Abstract

- Please write full form of CRU
- Keywords is missing in abstract
- In abstract, you did not mention what kind of methodology do you use for analysis
- In general, writing can be improved

Introduction

- In 2nd paragraph of introduction section, instead of membership, belonging would be appropriate word. The 2<sup>d</sup> paragraph is generic on explaining the reasons for their social exclusion. Please cite more literature and be specific on what makes them socially disadvantaged words rather than making generic statements.

Research Questions

- Please add literature review or related literature section taking big chunk of your research questions literature and make research questions or objective of your research questions simple and clear.

Econometric Modelling

- Please provide clarity on the kind of econometric modelling you selected for analysis and why you selected that specific model

About data from IHDS

- On the data section, there is no information about number of samples stratified by social groups and other key socioeconomic indicators

Result section

- Please present the results by the research results more clearly.

For all sections

- Please provide full form of a word such as SPEI, LT, MT, and others, for the first time use.
- Please use I or please add other authors' name
- Paper should be restructured and rewritten for more clarity.
