

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cervical Atypical Carcinoid Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Cervical Atypical Carcinoid Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C128044.

An extremely rare low grade neuroendocrine tumor that arises from the cervix. It is characterized by the presence of greater degree of nuclear atypia and mitotic activity as compared to low grade neuroendocrine tumor, grade 1.