

Review of: "[Case Report] Acquiring Walking with Lower Leg Prosthesis by Passive Shoulder Blades and Improved Trunk Range of Motion: A Case Report"

Phuwarin Namdaeng<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Thammasat University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Dear Author,

I have some concerns about this case report.

1. The author should explain in detail about the set of exercises and progression
2. Change of Berg Balance Scale at any times
3. The author should analyze the relation between the range of motion of the trunk and walking with lower leg prosthesis, and why a patient was able to walk after improved trunk range of motion.

Best regards.