- It is an interesting topic. However, in the abstract, it is recommended to clearly communicate the focus and purpose of the study well. Also, there are a few places where you could make it more concise and engaging.
- The study would benefit from a clear research question, goals, and objectives.
- There is a lack of detailed evidence from previous studies of AI, as well as chatbots, to related projects in the research.
- The methodology section should be more specific. It is essential to provide a comprehensive explanation of your research strategy. This will help readers understand the approach you have taken to gather, analyze, and interpret data.
- To expand the methodology, it is recommended to include: Research Strategy and Design, Sampling Method, Data Collection; Instrument Development; Data Analysis, and Ethical Considerations.
- It is recommended to enhance the cohesiveness of the discussion by organizing the points in a more structured manner.
- For the purpose of enhancing the overall cohesiveness and scholarly integrity of the manuscript, it is recommended that the concluding segment be thoughtfully integrated within the document. This strategic incorporation serves to consolidate the themes, findings, and implications discussed throughout the paper, ensuring a coherent synthesis of the presented insights and contributing to the scholarly discourse in a more impactful manner.
