

Review of: "Why Corruption in Nigeria? Experts' Accounts on the Occurrences and Persistence"

Joseph Phiri<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The Copperbelt University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The author did a commendable job in the data analysis section. However, they did a disservice to themselves and the readers by failing to properly problematize the study. They needed to position the research within a proper research area to enable the paper contribute to a specific debate within the accountability research. This is demonstrated by a skinny contribution section which really personifies the shortcoming of the paper.