

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Stationary Digital Tomosynthesis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Stationary Digital Tomosynthesis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C126696.

Digital tomosynthesis that uses an array of x-ray sources to obtain cross-sectional images of an object for 3-D image construction. Stationary digital tomosynthesis eliminates the blur associated with a moving x-ray source and also decreases the time needed to obtain the images.