

Review of: "Procurement Planning & the Rwanda Biomedical Centre (RBC)"

Florin Radu<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Valahia University of Targoviste

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The article is very well structured.

Part of the introduction addresses the Statement of the Problem and Significance of the Study.

The following aspects are addressed in the Literature Review: Needs assessment in procurement planning, cost estimation and forecasting in procurement, quality specification in procurement, conceptual framework

The methodology is based on the following: Research design, study population and sampling, qualitative data collection using interview guides, quantitative data collection using questionnaires

The conclusions and implications are very well detailed.

Bibliography can be updated.