

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Fusion Protein

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Fusion Protein. NCI Thesaurus. Code C17561.

A protein in which the coding region of two genes have become in-frame and continuous. Fusion proteins can be formed by chromosomal breakage and/or recombination and also can be experimentally created using recombinant DNA techniques.