

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Isovaleric Acidemia

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Isovaleric Acidemia. NCI Thesaurus. Code C98964.

A rare autosomal recessive inherited disorder caused by mutations in the IVD gene. It is characterized by abnormalities in the metabolism of leucine. Signs and symptoms vary from very mild to life threatening and include vomiting, seizures, lethargy, and coma.