

Review of: "Cleft Lip and Palate Repairs in X, "Sourire de l'Espoir" Humanitarian Missions' Experience: A Retrospective Study of 201 Consecutive Cases"

Juan Maza-Solano¹

¹ Hospital Universitario Virgen Macarena

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This retrospective study shows a humanized vision of CLP pathology in terms of treatment during missions. Obviously, there is a population bias, as the authors describe, in the same way that, during the first years, there is a follow-up bias. Likewise, could the results of indigenously trained surgeons be shown, showing their learning curve?