Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The draft provides a comprehensive overview of the challenges and opportunities faced by micro and small-scale enterprises (MSEs) in Hawassa City, Sidama Region, Ethiopia. The inclusion of relevant literature citations helps support the statements made in the draft. However, there are a few areas that can be improved:

Underpinning theories not well established. Kindly include

Structure and organization: The draft would benefit from a clearer structure and organization. It can be divided into sections or subsections to enhance readability and make it easier for readers to navigate through the content. For example, the introduction can be followed by separate sections addressing each specific objective of the research, and the review of literature can be its own distinct section.

Citations and references: While the draft includes some citations, it would be helpful to include in-text citations throughout the document to attribute specific information and ideas to their respective sources. Additionally, a list of references at the end of the draft would enhance the credibility of the information presented.

Data and statistics: The draft could benefit from the inclusion of relevant data and statistics to support the statements made about the challenges and opportunities faced by MSEs in Hawassa City. This could include data on the number of MSEs, employment statistics, economic indicators, and other relevant information that provides a more quantitative perspective.

Analysis and insights: The draft provides a good overview of the challenges and opportunities, but it would be beneficial to include more analysis and insights based on the existing literature. This could involve discussing patterns or trends observed in previous studies, highlighting specific case studies or success stories, and providing a deeper analysis of the factors that contribute to the challenges and opportunities identified. Please include post estimation test results in your results ...

Recommendations: It would be valuable to include a section or subsection dedicated to recommendations for addressing the challenges and leveraging the opportunities for MSEs in Hawassa City. This could involve suggesting policy interventions, strategies for improving access to finance and infrastructure, promoting skill development, and fostering market linkages.

By addressing these suggestions, the draft can be further enhanced to provide a more structured, well-supported, and insightful analysis of the challenges and opportunities faced by MSEs in Hawassa City, Sidama Region, Ethiopia.
