

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Focal facial dermal dysplasia type IV

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Focal facial dermal dysplasia type IV. ORPHA:398189

Focal facial dermal dysplasia type IV (FFDD4) is a rare focal facial dysplasia (FFDD; see this term), characterized by congenital isolated preauricular and/or cheek blister scar-like lesions.