

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Inspissated Bile Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Inspissated Bile Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C98956.

A syndrome characterized by persistent jaundice, hemolytic anemia, and hepatomegaly in a newborn. It is characterized by the presence of inspissated bile plugs in the bile ducts.