

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Scientific Control

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Scientific Control. NCI Thesaurus. Code C64355.

Methodology that tests integrity in experiments by isolating variables as dictated by the scientific method in order to make a conclusion about such variables. In a controlled experiment, two virtually identical experiments are conducted, but the factor being tested is varied in only one of them. This serves to isolate any causal phenomena.