

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Pyramidalis Muscle

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Pyramidalis Muscle. NCI Thesaurus. Code C33438.

A small, triangular-shaped muscle that is enclosed in the rectus sheath anterior to the rectus abdominis; it takes its origin from the pubic symphysis and pubic crest, inserts on the linea alba, and functions to tense the linea alba.