

Review of: "[Perspective] The possibility of a silent methamphetamine catastrophe in Bangladesh"

Melike Aydoğdu¹

¹ Ege University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This paper should be evaluated as a short communication. First of all, thank you. Besides methamphetamine, Yaba addiction is emphasized, and information about its use, content, and prevalence is given. It would be interesting to include this article in the study title.

Adding the latest Drug Reports from your region, seized substance statistics, and crime rates can strengthen the study.

Permission for the image used must be obtained. I feel the lack of a recommendation paragraph.