

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Relaxation Therapy

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Relaxation Therapy. NCI Thesaurus. Code C15316.

A therapeutic regimen in which the patient is guided by the therapist into alternate relaxation and flexing of muscles throughout the body as a method of pain control. It is related to guided imagery and distraction and attention therapies.