

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Castleman Disease, Hyaline-Vascular Type

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Castleman Disease, Hyaline-Vascular Type. NCI Thesaurus. Code C27853.

The commonest type of Castleman disease. It is seen most commonly in the mediastinum. Histologically this is characterized by hyalinized germinal centers surrounded by small lymphocytes in a concentric fashion, giving an onion skin appearance.