

Review of: "The Universal Accessibility Provisions in Educational Institutes of New Delhi, India"

Thanikachalam Vedhathiri<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> National Institute of Technical Teachers Training and Research (NITTTR)

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

- Well written paper on the present accessibility status of educational institutions in Delhi as per the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Rules, 2017
- The study evaluated institutions complains with the five-year time limit from 15.06.2017 as prescribed by the RPwDs Act 2016.
- Only 14 out of 27 reported being complaint with accessibility standards
- The authors didn't investigate the reasons for noncompliance.
- Is it due to want of funds/grants-in-aid?
- Problems faced by the physically challenged students and staff were not presented
- They suggested that to increase accessibility to resources, empowerment, and change in mindset

As such the article may be published.