Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. The abstract requires improvement by adding more explanation regarding the purpose of the study, methods, and results. It should be more informative.
2. Please mention the specific aim of this work.
3. The logicity of manuscripts needs to be further strengthened, and the presentation of related works should not only be listed, but also have their own reflection and analysis.
4. The methods explained in the introduction part make it confusing. In the introduction, the topic, problem statement, and research gaps should be explained more in detail. The methodology was not clearly stated.
5. The authors have to tune it up, especially on the methodology, significance of the study, and the discussion of the results.
6. The conclusion does not provide any directions for future studies.
