

Review of: "Impact of Environmental Education on the Knowledge and Attitude of University of Benin Students towards Waste Segregation"

Magdalena Nikolic

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The Title of the manuscript is clear and appropriate to the papers subject matter. Abstract fully and clearly expresses goal, subject of matter, methods and conclusions. Key words are proper. The authors have clearly defined the goals of the paper, as well as a significance of the subject of matter that is clearly stated. The methods applied are appropriate and clearly presented. The hypothesis and arguments are clearly analyzed and support the presented results and discussion. Illustrations in the manuscript are appropriate, clearly presented, and, properly cited in the text. Results are clearly presented. Thus, the conclusions are correctly and logically derived from the evidence and arguments presented data. The text is written clearly, concisely, stylistically, grammatically and technically correct. References are appropriate and all key relevant literature sources are cited in correct format.

Final decision:

The manuscript should be accepted