

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Periosteal Desmoid Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Periosteal Desmoid Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C97065.

A reactive, benign fibrous lesion that develops in the periosteum of the femur. It usually affects boys and there is a history of trauma. It is characterized by the formation of dense collagen tissue and reactive bone.