The paper is technically sound and well-written. However, there are a few drawbacks that need to be corrected to make the paper better.

1). Section 2 says "review of literature and formulation of hypotheses." However, no hypotheses were framed based on the arguments. Hypotheses are presented in section 2.7, but they are mentioned as research questions.

2). Table 2. Descriptive statistics can be presented better.

3). The data analysis is followed by a conclusion. The discussion section is completely missing.
