

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Subcutis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Subcutis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C33645.

Adipose tissue located under the dermis. It binds underlying structures with the skin. The subcutis is important in the regulation of temperature of the skin itself and the body. The size of this layer varies throughout the body and from person to person.