Dear Authors,

I enjoyed reading your article as it seems to be well-constructed paper. However, some minor revisions are necessary to be carried out.

The main issue is the formatting of the paper based on APA. The sections of Introduction, Literature review, and Results should clearly be headlined. Please follow the APA style for sub-sections. The abstract contains too much detailed information and numbers; it should give an overview of the paper, findings and implications. The table you brought in the Results should also be modified based on APA.

Hope this helps!
