

Review of: "Entrepreneurship education in the Tanzanian higher education institutes: The learning theories perspective"

Courage Simon Kofi Dogbe¹

¹ Akenten Appiah-Menka University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

It is unclear whether the research is an empirical study or just a literature review. If it's empirical, then data should be gathered and analyzed, to support the study. If it's a literature review manuscript, then the various components of a review manuscript should be considered, including methodology on how the literature was gathered.

The entire manuscript should be restructured to follow the basic publication format.