

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Hemoglobin Subunit Alpha

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Hemoglobin Subunit Alpha. NCI Thesaurus. Code C75434.

Hemoglobin subunit alpha (142 aa, ~15 kDa) is encoded by both the human HBA1 and human HBA2 genes. This protein plays a role in the distribution of oxygen from the lungs to other organs and tissues.