

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Malignant Pituitary Gland Neoplasm

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Malignant Pituitary Gland Neoplasm. NCI Thesaurus. Code C4769.

A primary or metastatic malignant neoplasm affecting the pituitary gland. Representative examples include functioning or non-functioning carcinomas arising from the anterior lobe of the pituitary gland, chordomas, chondrosarcomas, and metastatic carcinomas from the breast, lung, and gastrointestinal tract.