

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Infiltrating Lipoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Infiltrating Lipoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C7451.

A benign tumor, composed of lobules of mature adipocytes, that penetrates the surrounding tissue from which it arises. There is usually a higher local recurrence rate when compared with non-infiltrating lipomas.

Qeios ID: BZVHRA · https://doi.org/10.32388/BZVHRA