

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Augmented Vector Right

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Augmented Vector Right. NCI Thesaurus. Code C90362.

An augmented unipolar electrocardiogram limb lead in which the positive (white) electrode is situated on the right thoracic limb and the negative electrode is a combination of the left thoracic limb (black) electrode and the left pelvic limb (red) electrode. Measures the electrical activity of the electrode on the right thoracic limb.