

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Amino Acid Receptor Binding

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Amino Acid Receptor Binding. NCI Thesaurus. Code C40469.

A process that involves the binding of any member of the group of amino acid neurotransmitters, including glutamate, aspartate, serine, glycine and gamma-aminobutyric acid, to their respective receptors. These interactions are involved in neurotransmission.