

Review of: "Assessment of Learner Satisfaction in Secondary School Education"

Lucía Ortega Donaire<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Universidad de Jaén

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The article is fine. The abstract and introduction are correct in terms of content, although it would be necessary to report the type of study in the abstract. The introduction needs more information that is related to the topic of study. the methodology is correct. It would be necessary to review the descriptive results table, and the regression coefficient table. In the discussion, reference is made to Q7 and Q9, which is not correct, it is better just to expose the question itself.