

Review of: "Drug-Free School Locality through Crime Prevention Strategies – The Case of Kerala"

Pratibha Dabas

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The topic is relevant to the current scenario. The case for the study's felt need has been built in well. The authors have gone into details of historical data, mapping and possible locations encouraging crime. There is good usage of scientific theories to try to find solution for a societal problem. The solutions provided are practical and comprehensive.