The article is good and innovative. Authors should also include some methods or approach to implement the suggestions given by them. They should also share their views regarding challenges and benefits to achieve investment driven economy.

They have laid emphasis on NEP of older version. NEP should be taken and considered the latest one i.e NEP 2020. Their is a huge change in it and will make paper more effective.

“Amrit Kal” needs to be emphasised and explained in detail. Reason being paper is global and most of the other nations are unaware of the concept of "AMRIT KAL".

Impact of latest technology and its use like AI/CHATGPT etc can also be given

Rest paper is good and can be published
