Though the topic is very trendy in current market , however the paper needs to get revised in many perspectives. Some points are listed below.

1. Abstract should be short and crisp where the objective should be directly addressed.
2. Introduction is irrelevant here. It should be revised.
3. "Fortunately, according to Amazon, the biggest cloud service provider worldwide. "....no meaning at all. Authors are requested to check the sentence and grammar.
4. Citations should be in proper place.
5. When the Abbreviations is used , the full form should be mentioned first before use.
6. "III. Related Work"irrelevant.
7. "V. Important Cloud Services".....authors can incorporate this part in a section named "preliminaries".
8. The proposed work should be defined in scientific way eith flow chart.
