Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. Paper is not in the standard structured format.
2. The methodology used if elaborated through pictorial form will be more appealing to the readers.
3. The case detailing is missing.
4. The findings, discussion and study implications are missing.
5. Unique findings of the study needs to be emphasized and elaborated at length.
6. Study validation through real time case study or empirical study can increase the weightage of the study.
