

Review of: "Social Perception of Male Faces. Individuals, Clusters, Dimensions"

Nora Muda¹

¹ Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This is exciting research with substantial implications for recognizing a face, particularly a man's, based on the qualities analyzed. The statistical analysis approach used is also acceptable for the data used, and the findings are interesting. This study could be extended with more valuable and fascinating findings through concrete analysis, explaining the conclusions in greater detail, and connecting them to the study's objectives.