Review of: "Cross-national associations of IQ and infectious diseases: Is the prevalence of Corona an exceptional case?"

Bashar Yahya

1 University of Mosul

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This manuscript is considered a good contribution to finding scientific solutions for how to deal with advanced science with health risks topics. The researchers were able to find logical solutions using modern scientific methods and using the necessary data to find these solutions. After my evaluation of this manuscript, I find it suitable for publication, and there are no comments regarding to my opinion.