

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Superior Supratentorial Cistern

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Superior Supratentorial Cistern. NCI Thesaurus. Code C33696.

A discrete space situated dorsal to the midbrain where the arachnoid mater and pia mater are separated, and through which a number of important vascular structures pass, including the great cerebral vein, the basal vein of Rosenthal, and the posterior cerebral artery.