

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Acute Pharyngitis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Acute Pharyngitis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C34355.

An acute and painful inflammatory process that affects the pharynx. It is usually caused by viruses and less often bacteria. Signs and symptoms include discomfort on swallowing, low-grade fever, headache, and earache.